

World Sailing

2 September to 18 October 2024

Sign Up for the World Sailing Training Scholarship

This seven-week training scholarship will provide the candidate with the training and experience required to develop and manage a successful National Training Program within the MNA. The course is held at the Andrew Simpson Sailing Centre in Weymouth and delivered by a range of World Sailing Staff and Coach Developers.

➔ Who is this course for?

- Committed volunteers or staff involved in developing a National Training Program.
- Individuals in the position to influence the future of training and development of Sailing in your country

➔ What does this course offer you as an MNA?

- Modules to strengthen both practical and theoretical knowledge and skills.
- Candidates will be taught how to teach others and how to manage an Accredited Training Centre or Sailing Club.
- The course aims to develop a candidate's knowledge on all aspects of running a nationally recognised Training Programme.
- Ultimately the candidate will be able to aid the growth of the MNA, to positively influence the development of sailing within the MNA.
- Throughout the course candidates will develop a project around an area they want to develop upon their return home.

➔ How can this training be funded, and how can I apply?

Via Olympic Solidarity Funding	Self-funded
Contact the World Sailing Participation and Development Team to speak about opportunities and put forward your desired candidate.  After these processes have been completed, MNA's should contact their NOC for initial conversations.	Contact World Sailing Participation and Development Team to speak about opportunities and put forward your desired candidate.  Request the information pack and return the required documents.

MNA's are requested to express their interest in participating by 30 March 2024. For any further questions or guidance with this process, please contact Catherine Duncan catherine.duncan@sailing.org from the World Sailing Participation and Development team.